

ACADEMY JOURNAL

VOLUME 1 NUMBER 1

A classical painting depicting Judith, a young woman with dark hair adorned with a feathered tiara, wearing a yellow dress and a blue shawl. She stands on the left, holding a sword in her right hand and the severed head of Holofernes in her left. The head is wrapped in a white cloth and is being held over a stone ledge. In the background, a man in a turban and dark clothing is visible, looking towards the woman. The scene is set in a dark, rocky environment with a cloudy sky in the background.

Judith.

Oratorio Readings
November 17th and 18th